o understand what grievance exists, and why these petitioners cannot participate in the benefits of the public school funds, seeing that the public schools are open to all and offer precisely the same advantages to the children of Catholic parents as to those of Protestant parents. But the "grievance" is that the former do not choose to avail themselves of those advantages because the schools are not under control of their, denomination and do not make it a part of their course of instruction to instil its particular creed.

The purpose of the petitioners is to have a proportion of the school funds, equal to their proportion of youth, turned over to the private schools conducted under the suspices of the Catholic denomi-

Grand Reunion of the Odd Fellows-CHICAGO, Sept. 21.

There was a grand reunion of the Odd Fellows at Metropolitan Hall last night.
There were fully two thousand persons persons present, a large number of whom were strangers. The introductory address was made by D. S. Shry, P. G. R. of Illinois. He was tollowed by Jno. B. Morse, Deputy Grand Sire of Germany and Switzerland; Vice President Colfax, Past Grand Sire of Indians, and James L. Ridgeley, Secretary of the Grand Lodge of the United States.

The Vice President said that for t quarter of a century he had been a mem-ber of the Order, and he could truthfully say that in all that time he had never heard a word in the ritual or charges of Odd Fellowship charges of Odd Fellowship which the severest critic or the most devoted Christian could object. All its devoted Christian could object. All its principles were drawn directly, and in many cases literally, from the Sacred Record. Here is taught obedience to the command of the Great Teacher: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself," and the Golden Rule as the theme of the most beautiful degree. After further vindication of the Order, the Vice President closed by saying that the victories of Odd Fellowship were not the victories of the warrior or the millionaire, but the more priceless victories on the battle-field of humanity, where the work is always plenty and the laborers few.

At the morning session of the Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F., the following amendment to the constitution was "No person shall be entitled to admis-

After the adoption of the amendment, the Committees on Un-finished Business, on Finance and on Legislation submitted various reports, which were appropriately disposed of, and the remainder of the session was oc-cupied in discussing an amendment to the constitution of the Grand Lodge of the United States, providing that the Past Grand Sires be allowed the same privi-lege and per diem tees as is allowed to
